

CREDIT: VICTORIA PEARSON

"To me, dusty pink feels like the color that saturates a fall sunset," says Erinn, who not only creates chic interiors but also is the founder of StyleRow, a one-of-a-kind digital hub serving the luxury design community.

Dusty Pink Table Accents Create a Cozy Setting for This Autumn Dinner Party

Designer Erinn Valencich hosts a fall dinner with a tablescape that happily makes the case for the evergreen qualities of a blush palette.

By Krissa Rossbund | July 31, 2020

Pink won't be hibernating its way through winter this year. Erinn Valencich absolutely will not allow it. Instead, with a little coaxing from the Los Angeles-based designer, the sweet pastel will leave behind its springtime comfort zone and star in a pretty fall tablescape created for an intimate gathering of friends.